

this is for you.

Andy Mayo

The band line-up on "This is for You" is an exciting combination of exceptional artists - here's Andy to introduce them:

Nick Beston: Saxophones

"We met at university while Nick was studying jazz. The first gig I heard him play was on a bus-café we opened in New Cross! It was Nick who one day said, 'Andy, we should do something with this music...' To start with that meant playing clubs together, later recording, touring, and the story goes on..."

Stan Majewski: Keys & programming

"Stan and I met in Serbia - the place that was my home for ten years. I'm always stunned by Stan's creativity and lateral thinking... a funky man."

Scott Barnard: Bass & Trumpets

"Give to Scott an impossible score and he'll play it perfectly adding that 'Je ne sais quoi!' that makes a Barnard bass-line."

Buster Birch: #1 Percussion

"He's playing all over the world but he has time to put in gigs with us too. He's the ultimate drummer who - as one person pointed out - 'Can play slow and fast'."

Luke Wastell: #2 Percussion

"Luke's toured with us several times now and adds some Wastell spice to retro-sounding 'Flattered' on this latest album."

Natasha McDonald: Backing Vox

"She's amazing - took time out from London shows to pour in some extra magic to five of the songs on 'This is for You'."

Daniel Weatherley: Violin

"Usually found playing with Catherine in chamber quartets, yet captured here..."

Catherine Brooker: Cello

"Friends from way back... now bringing her sound to this recording. A mellow cello."

Pete Ringrose: Double Bass

"Pete's a genius. So precise yet with a soul... From the lineup of our first tour, it's something special to have him back for 'This is for You'."
